Job Description
Summary

BASIC FUNCTION:

Provide supervision to University Police Sergeant(s) and lesser ranking public safety personnel for multiple shifts. With a high degree of professionalism: promote public safety; enforce laws and Board of Trustees and University of Rhode Island regulations; affect arrests in accordance with provisions of federal, state, and local laws and ordinances; maintain order and security on premises within the legal jurisdiction; provide emergency medical services to the University community; and protect life and property. Responsible for the review of all police and security activity, ensuring that proper community-oriented policing problem-solving techniques are being utilized. Responsible for the coordination and oversight of follow-up investigations and for ensuring the proper and economical use of police staffing. In the absence of an on-duty sergeant, responsible for the police officers on a shift. Respond to major incidents and provide guidance to supervisory and patrol personnel. Coordinate the exchange of information with other law enforcement agencies and with institutional partners. Be available for 24-hour callback as required.

Duties and Responsibilities

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Oversee operations pertaining to criminal investigations, patrol, traffic, dispatch and records by planning, organizing, scheduling, and assigning daily work tasks or area assignments, as appropriate, for the police and security division unit. Provide support to other public safety divisions as needed.

Work with members of the Department and the University community to define and implement problem-solving techniques related to patrol operations.

Answer technical questions about the work and instruct in special techniques. Review work for technical accuracy and conformance with law and established policies and procedures.

Oversee the training function; identify and provide training in response to community and departmental needs and concerns; appraise individual performance and provide guidance on improvement.

Supervise the recruitment, training, and scheduling of shift and/or division personnel to ensure that necessary police functions of the department are carried out in compliance with established policies and procedures. Approve leave requests and be accountable for the staffing of assigned shifts.

Responsible for the inspection of uniforms and the appearance of staff and patrol officers, ensuring adherence to the code of professional standards.

Begin initial investigation and make recommendations to the Deputy Chief in the event of violations of departmental rules and regulations.

Make recommendations for commendations for all personnel.

Assist with budget development in the areas of equipment, personnel, and training funds. Be familiar with University purchasing procedures and forms and serve as the point of contact for vendors.

Assume command of police activities at any major event, deploying officers and equipment for maximum results.

Assume command of police officers on a shift in the absence of a sergeant.

Fill Command and General Staff roles, consistent with the Incident Command System component of the National Incident Management System, and, as required, fill these roles during an activation of the Emergency Operations Center. These roles include but are not limited to: Section Chiefs (Operations, Logistics, Planning, Finance and Administration); or Deputy Chiefs, Division Supervisors (geographically defined area of responsibility); or Group Supervisors (functionally defined areas).

Supervise the planning and organizing of law enforcement activities surrounding special events involving large crowds; ensure proper and adequate police and security coverage.

Develop and maintain records and prepare reports to provide adequate tracking of operations. Records include but are not limited to, those on field activities, results of special investigations, staff personnel files, and monthly activity reports.

Review all reports and recommend strategies to address crimes and quality-of-life issues or other public safety concerns.

Oversee/assist with court appearances when testimony and prosecution are required.

Ensure compliance with law enforcement accreditation standards.

Be accountable for the actions or omissions of officers under their supervision.

Organize and assign duties to ensure the successful completion of tasks.

Assign overtime and detail officers as required.

OTHER DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Perform police officer duties and act as back-up to officers as necessary to ensure the department meets its protection and security responsibilities.

Qualify annually with department-issued firearms.

Maintain all issued equipment and weapons, including firearms, in a state of operational readiness.

Act as liaison officer between University, municipal, state, and federal law enforcement agencies.

Appear in court to provide testimony and prosecution when required.

Serve on University committees as required by the Deputy Chief or Director.

Oversee personnel assigned to follow-up investigations of crimes. Provide supervision to investigators regarding criminal charges and interpretation of University and Board of Trustee rules.

Conduct internal affairs investigations as requested by the Deputy Chief or Director.

Oversee and conduct background investigations of potential public safety employees when requested.

Observe the performance of probationary employees and submit a report to the Deputy Chief or Director recommending or not recommending permanent status.

Oversee the Records Retention Policy for the University Police Department. Ensure the department complies with the Access to Public Records Act. Dispense reports to the appropriate University partners and comply with FERPA.
